

Sinclair Broadcasting is showing blatant disregard for democracy and the good of America's people through their programming and their actions in forcing their stations to air anti-John Kerry ads near election time. This is an important issue that deserves direct action from the FCC, and staggering proof that media consolidation laws need to be made tougher, not weakened.